

Arrius MPR-5000

MASTER-GRADE CLASSICAL GUITAR

The master-grade guitar of the MPR series: special-grade solid Canadian cedar over solid Indian rosewood, with an additional resonance port, a raised ebony fingerboard and a solid ebony armrest.

- Additional resonance port in the upper side — the player hears the full voice of the guitar
- Raised ebony fingerboard — free access to the high positions
- Solid ebony armrest — comfort, protection, a freer top
- Up to 22% more volume with standard concert dimensions
- All woods seasoned for at least eight years
